LEARNER QUICK START GUIDE

Welcome to edX Subscriptions!
Follow these steps to get started.

Activate your license

Click the link provided in the activation email and follow the directions to create an account at edX.org if needed. Be sure to use the email address that received the activation email.

Find a course

Click "Find a Course" above the banner. You can search for subjects, course names, and content providers. Once you find the right course, click "Enroll".

Enroll and start your journey

The edX learner support team is available to answer any questions. Use the great information at our Help Center or contact info@edx.org.

Access your Learner Portal

Use your learner portal to see all of the courses included in your subscription catalog. Your learner portal also shows all of your current and upcoming enrollments.

Enable data sharing

When you enroll in a course you may be prompted for consent to share your learner progress. This allows edX to share information about your performance in the course with your organization.
